JET CHAIR
Designed in 2004, as part of a sub-major in Furniture Design, this piece is a chaise lounge manufactured from plywood and laser cut laminated acrylic. Whilst intensely proud of the form that this piece takes, the process was such that a lot was learned, including what not to do. Currently the prototype is nearing completion and will hopefully be exhibited in the near future.